

MARTIN FIDLER AND THE RUSKIN WALKS

To coincide with his solo exhibition of paintings, drawing and sculpture at Ramsgate's UpDown Gallery this June, artist Martin Fidler will host a programme of walking workshops.

The series of experimental and challenging walks explore and record the local environment of buildings and open spaces in a manner similar to John Ruskin, the artist, critic and social reformer. People participating in the three-hour walks will be encouraged to take a different view of their surroundings, inspiring fresh observations, which can be recorded as notes and sketches kept in a small journal, provided for the walking workshop. You don't need to be able to draw, just observe and take note of the everyday that you normally walk past with fresh eyes.
